A DIVINE ON DANCING Remarkable Sermon of a Preach-er in the Dominion.

The other day Rev. Wm. McDonagh, of Paris, Canada, preached a sermon on dancing. The heads of the Synod sent a stenographer to the church, and the report of the sermon has been filed away as the foundation of an indictment against Brother McDonagh, which will be brought before the High Presbyterian Tribunal that meets in Toronto in June next. The text of the twelfth verse of the fifth chapter of Isaiah: "And the harp and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine are in their feats, but, they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands." The church, it may be well to state, was filled to sufform the other considering the charge of the books at Gill & Walker's, may be well to state, was filled to suffocation by an immense congregation, in-cluding two or three hundred ladies:

The history of dancing is full of all that is beastly, envious, murderous and lustful. It has been stated that the terornestra musical associations here. Oh, what charms!

ble moral debasement of dancing in the nited States has been the primary cause nine-tenths of the divorces in the county. Look at France, a country that is couraging and licensing the social evil, by, every man and woman in France in iddle and dance, and many a dancing thawag or a dancing chimney-aweep trees France, for France's good, and as to New York or Chicago, where he sounces himself as a teacher of dancing or music, obtains a position in a sily of young ladies, and is soon enged in the work of a soon enged in the ing girls of every shred of virtue the nay possess, going from family to family solishing off the girls as he goes. The French scoundrel has been accustomed to see women dancing in their birthday at-tire at home, and he soon has his pupils in this country taught to do the same, I have no doubt this sort of thing is done [Great commotion the females of the congregation and cries of "Shame!" and a general smirking and tittering. What is dancing? What is the inner life of dancing is a smirking and tittering. Who is dancing is consciolsness of sex—a feeling more easily understood than described, [More commotion, and repeated cries of "Shame!"] Who dares to deny that? Read Romans, swelfthehapter, first verse, and Galatians, fifthehapter, severteenth to twenty-lifth verses. You doubt my word, some of you professed Christians, who permit balls in your houses, and let your wives and daughters be ingered. clawed and beslavored over by lustful and grinning libertines. [Uproar.] I tell you, if you would make the parties at your houses popular, you must shorten be deresses above and below the wowen at your houses popular, you must shorten the dresses above and below the women.

and I saw the women acting like beasts-Where do you libertine and lustful Christiansget your dances from? I will ell you: They are sent from hell to France, and thence to Canada via New York and Chicago. [A voice, "No, we import direct from headquarters, and save the middlemen; we're Grangers—we are," Laughter, cheers and great commotion.] I believe you; I verily believe this town is a small hell, and this Domition a hell nearly four million square miles in area. The Turk who, after looking at a modern waitz, asked, "And what followed?" had a level head. Great uproar.] I'll show you what dancing is. I looked through a window at a dance in this town the other evening—do you want me to give names? and Where do you libertine and hustful saw a young fool of a fellow approach a young lady, and I'll show you what follow-ed. [Here Rev. McDonagh tripped across the pulpit platform, and bowing politely to an imaginary young lady, said in soft tones: "My dear Miss M——, can I tones: "My dear Miss M-, can I have the pleasure of a dance with you?" have the pleasure of a dance with you?"
Then the reverend gentleman tripped back as if bearing a lady on his arm. This exhibition created great-laughter.] And now watch that young couple. The young woman begins to perspire, here eyes tlash; she grows excited; the young man is also excited; he takes hold of the young lady's hand; his touch thrills her through and through, and off they go into the dance, he ready to pounce upon her virtue the first chance that offers." [A voice, "You know how it is yourself." Cheers and great excitement.]

Great excitement, and cries of "Put him

Bellame Locals.—The election of township and city officers takes place in this city on Monday next. Our citizens for once are taking an unprecedented interest in the contest. The Republicans have selected candidates of character and ability, in order to accomplish a reform in our municipal administration. Water Works Trustees must hereafter use more of their time to look after the interest of their department financially. The demuniciations of many of our best citizen against that department is found and no doubt justifiable to a certain degree.
